The name is confusing for many people, especially because in French pastry vocabulary, a flan is a kind of tart with a baked crust and a creamy filling. What we Latinos know as flan is something quite different but equally delightful. Peruvians also call it crema volteada, which literally means "upside down cream", and have turned their love for this ubiquitous dessert into a creative force ...

Peruano beans are the quiet sibling when sitting next to Black and Pinto at the dinner table. Black and Pinto do all the talking, constantly arguing their case for a coveted spot on your Mexican dinner plate. Peruano is happy to sit smugly next to them, confident in its case to overtake both of ...

I was so excited to try my hand at some more fast food things after my breakfast sandwiches were so well received. After last week's poll, it looks like people were most excited about the possibility of making Chalupas at home.. Let me start by saying that I've never actually had a Taco Bell Chalupa, although I did go through a Taco Bell phase in high school...
