The King James Version Bible (KJV) was authorized by King James I and is sometimes referred to as the "Authorized Version". It was translated by the Church of England and was first published in 1611. The KJV New Testament was translated from the Textus Receptus. However, the majority of the book of Revelation seems to have been translated from the Latin Vulgate.

Question: "Should we stand when the Bible is read?" Answer: In Nehemiah 8:5, the priest Ezra gathered the people who had rebuilt Jerusalem's wall for the reading of God's law: "Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up."
