"The Hot Chick" pretty much beats out its bad teen comedies competition and is a whole lot more subtle and cutting edge than "Freaky Friday". I normally do not find Rob Schneider particularly entertaining but because he is only one of three main characters he does not feel compelled to carry the whole movie and his performance is reasonably restrained.

Parents need to know that The Hot Chick includes extremely explicit and offensive humor in just about every category. There are "jokes" about anorexia, pedophile priests, erections, cross-dressing boys, homosexuality, and race. Potential messages about acceptance and maturation are forsaken for cheap and easy attempts at humor.
