Ww2 Victory In Europe Experience

Victory Day is a holiday that commemorates the surrender of Nazi Germany in 1945. It was first inaugurated in the 15 republics of the Soviet Union, following the signing of the German Instrument of Surrender late in the evening on 8 May 1945 (after midnight, thus on 9 May Moscow Time). The Soviet government announced the victory early on 9 May after the signing ceremony in Berlin.

World War II (often abbreviated to WWII or WW2), also known as the Second World War, was a global war that lasted from 1939 to 1945. The vast majority of the world's countries—including all the great powers—eventually formed two opposing military alliances: the Allies and the Axis. A state of total war emerged, directly involving more than 100 million people from over 30 countries.

Interesting article. I had seen an old article on Italian armor in the second world war that mentioned the intended licensed production of the PzKpfw V, though with very little details other than the listing of the Cannone da 90/53 as a possibly intended main armament if not the German L/70, which had fascinated me in that subject for a long time since then.

The History of Carrots - World War Two. During the Second World War (1939-45) Food, and in particular the lack of it, was central to the experience of the Second World War. Carrots were one vegetable which was in plentiful supply and as a result were widely-utilised as a substitute for scarce food stuffs and used in several "mock" recipes.
